

Minutes - January 7, 2025

Minutes of the last Recreation Council Meeting from March 12, 2024 are posted

Recreation Club Treasurer's Report: $13,320.42. Motion for approval by Dave Jacobsen, seconded by Dan Zimmmerman.

Recreation Council Committee Reports:

Dave Jacobson - Dances are going well. We lost $186 on the first dance and made $189 on New Years Eve; so a net gain of $3.

Old Business:

- Tabled the copyright question. No one there to request or present.
- We will have a 50th anniversary celebration on February 22

New Business:

- Cindy M & Celine B Patio sale is scheduled for January 30 & 31. Drop items off on Thurs at 8 a.m.
- Shuffleboard - Lori Bradford reported that she has a number of people helping out with quotes for shuffle improvement.
- Cre8time is going well. Schedule is full.
- Laurie Haase and Barb Schlie -We have three couples so far for the 50th anniversary celebration; we expect a few more. Meeting of volunteers will be held later this week.
- Patio Party - Bill Gavlin reported that patio socials will start on Thursday, January 16. They will run the same as last year. Sign up, pay at the door, both burgers and chicken available. Dessert by donation (cookies)
- Golf - Phil Oliver reported that they will be cancelling golf Thursday because of weather. Phil will post on FaceBook, signs at the gate and near the post office.
- Breakfasts - First breakfast is Wednesday, 01-08-15 with the new breakfast group, Dan & Elly and Doug & Bonnie. Gayle and Don will be here to help/oversee the first one.
- Garden Club - Dale Murray - Did not have the meeting schedule because of bad weather. A couple of people did help her plant some pansies.

-Christmas Dinner & Soup Lunch - Cheryl Mcleod - Everything went well. She is already planning for next year. Soup lunch has been scheduled for January 23rd.

-Church - Carole Peters - Approximately 70 churchgoers and 40+ at the Christmas Eve service.

-Decorating - Cindy Melsby - Decorating is going well

- Bill R reported that Qigong is going well and that he will be adding more book storage in the library

-Bev D - calendar coordinating is going well; always a few challenges, will order printer ink.

-Larry K - reported that they have been having 30 bowlers on Fridays.

-Everything is going along fine in the kitchen and with bingo according to Larry G

-Dennis P updated council on repairs to audio and that there is a CD player that doesn't work, but also is no longer in use. The CD player will be removed.