Call to Order: 11:28 AM @ Thomas Center by President Dave Jacobsen accepted Beverly Dressell's resignation and thanked her for maintaining the Rec calendar for the last six years.

Additions to Agenda: Old business from last Club minutes concerning TV at the Thomas Center and posting minutes on Park webpage, arts and crafts conflicts

Minutes of Last Rec. Exec. Meeting: As posted.

Recreation Club Treasurers Report: Report attached.

Question of kitchen expenses frequency of report to Treasurer.

Treasurer would like expenses of events reported monthly.

Move to accept by Dan Zimmerman, 2nd Bill Robart. All approved

Old Business:

Replacing Bylaws with Rules approval, Park Board approved, question of coordinator duties with event plans. Major change every two years for Rec Board positions. Suggested that positions be split between each election. Rules to be replaced by the Bylaws as posted was approved by the Rec Council and passed on to the Rec Club for approval.

New TV at the Thomas Center request was discussed. TV is currently used to view football games and exercise programs. Comparison of a new TV to the one currently at the Thomas Center was discussed. A show of hands vote indicated no one in favor.

There will be a posting of Rec minutes to the Park website for all Rec members to see.

New Business:

Amazon Prime used at Thomas Center was discussed

Seldom used purchases and Thursday night football games.

Bonnie Stanley moved to remove purchase of Amazon Prime, Elnora Colley seconded. All approved.

Art show date to be settled. It was scheduled for the first Saturday in March which is March 7th. No conflict seems to exist.

A reminder that events should be approved by the Rec Exec Board. Events need to be reviewed to ensure they are not in conflict with Rec or Park Rules. It was suggested that events should be discussed at the March Coordinator meeting, and that the new process of using Event Plans should ensure that events have approval.

Pool aerobics program video is on someone's SD card. There is no coordinator for this activity. Linda Avram volunteered and was appointed by President Jacobsen to be added to Health and Wealth group.

Dennis Pepe and the new calendar: Patio Party and Breakfasts, January burgers 8th and 22nd. Coordinators list is being sent to Dennis. Contact Dennis on changes for events by text, email, or phone call.
